Sticker Campaign Stirs Interest In Primary

Local Committee Planning To Give Out Stickers For Gibbons

A sticker campaign will be waged at the town's six polling places next Tuesday, as members of the Republican Town Committee and other interested Republicans seek support for Charles Gibbons of Stoneham as the nominee for Governor.

The unexpected developments over the Labor Day weekend — which saw Attorney General George Fingold, the party's nominee, drop dead from a heart attack, and the selection Tuesday of Gibbons to replace him — have sharpened the interest in next Tuesday's primary.

The Republicans must secure 2,500 votes for their sticker candidate, spread over five counties.

Although Town Committee Chairman Philip K. Allen had not received specific details of the sticker campaign at press time Wednesday morning, he told the TOWNSMAN that the Committee has been alerted to handle the vast project.

Some 3,201 voters are registered Republicans in this community. (Continued on Page 14)

Special Town Meeting Oct. 6

Parking Funds Not Available

Off-street parking funds, appropriated in other years and carried over for use by the Selectmen, may not be used to straighten out a section of Rogers Brook in the middle of a proposed parking area on the west side of Main st. Nor can the money be used to lease the land from its owners.

This ruling of Town Counsel Vincent Stulgis was relayed to disappointed merchants at a general meeting last Friday morning by Selectman Sidney P. White. The Board of Trade Committee, members of the Finance Committee, and the Selectmen had gathered to discuss the plan to straighten out a short brook section. Town counsel had said, earlier in the week, that he believed it would be

A special town meeting has been called for Monday, Oct. 6 at 7:30 p.m. in Memorial Auditorium.

A final decision on the special session was made Tuesday morning by the Board of Selectmen.

All articles must be filed with the town clerk by 4:30 Friday, Sept. 19, in order to be included in the warrant.

A quick check of official town boards Tuesday indicated that zoning may be the biggest question at the meeting.

Already one zoning request — from the Co-Op — has been filed. The Planning Board has called a public hearing on that article for Sept. 9, at 7:45 in the Board's town hall office. The Co-Op asks to have land along Chestnut st. zoned for business — actually this article is in substance, a re-

Bus Routes Changed In '58

School Supt. Edward I. Erickson has announced the bus schedules for school children, effective Sept. 8.

Under existing regulations, junior and senior high students must live one-and-a-half miles from the school to be eligible for transportation. Elementary school students have to live a mile from school in order to ride. This also applies to the kindergarten students.

Changes have been made this year in some elementary school routes, because the South School opening compelled them. All routes, Erickson said, will be subject to some revision after opening day, as required.

The following morning routes will be observed when School opens Sept. 8:

Joseph Brouillard: 7:10, start corner High Plain rd. and Haggetts Pond rd., down Haggetts Pond rd. to Bailey rd., to Pleasant st., to River rd., to High School, to Stevens st. to Junior High; 7:40, leave Junior High to Lowell st., to Tessier dr. to Bellevue rd., to Brown st., to Lowell st., to Haggetts Pond rd., Corner of Lowell st. at Barron's Gas Station, Haggetts Pond rd. up to Bailey rd. to Pleasant st., turn around to Haggetts Pond rd. to Boutwell rd. to St. Augustine's; 8:25, reverse back Chandler rd. to Doyle's corner, back to West Elementary; 8:40, from West Elementary School to Lowell st., to Arthur st., to Theodore st. to Lowell st., to Poor st., to Shawsheen School.

Joseph W. Connor: 7:15, start at corner of Bancroft and Holt rds.,

INJURED FIREMAN — Louis Beaulieu is given first aid by Mrs. Gordon Coutts and Mrs. Edward Palenski, members of the Firefighters Auxiliary, during the Saturday morning blaze at the Kiernan home on West Knoll rd. Many firefighters were given assistance at the scene, in addition to the eight who went to the Lawrence General Hospital. (Leone)

The state fire marshal continued his investigation this week of the destructive fire that caused $100,000 worth of damage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiernan on West Knoll rd. Saturday morning.

Eight firefighters were taken to Lawrence General Hospital as a result of the fire.

Firefighter James R. Deymond was listed in good condition early Wednesday morning at the Lawrence General Hospital. He was injured when the department's aerial ladder collapsed onto the roof.

Other firefighters injured during the two-alarm blaze were Clark Otis, Kenneth Hilton, Walter Winward, Walter Pike, William Holden, Edward King and Louis Beaulieu. Smoke and intense heat were blamed for most of the casualties.

Extensive Damage

Mrs. Kiernan estimated damage at $100,000, after seeing the ruins of her two-story home and the condition of its furnishings. Intense heat in the dwelling, which was closed up while the family vacationed at Nantucket, caused severe damage even where the flames did not touch. In addition to antique furnishings, Mrs. Kiernan's trophies and mementos of many Powder Puff Derby competitions and other events were caught by the fire.

Lacked Pressure

Shortly after answering the alarm at 9:55 a.m. Saturday, firefighters were hampered by poor pressure at the scene. A second pump was pressed into service at the pumping station, which eventually provided the solid streams of water needed to get the flames under control.

It was during this interlude that firefighters were at work venting the roof. Thick clouds of smoke became worse as this was done.

Deymond and Edward Morrissey were joined on the aerial ladder by other firefighters, with a second hose. When the ladder collapsed, it appeared to be near the base of the ladder, just away from the truck. The extended portion sagged to the roof, hurting Deymond. He came down the ladder under his own power but collapsed shortly after being placed in the ambulance. Morrissey was unhurt.

Even as Deymond was being taken to the hospital and other firefighters were being given oxygen at the scene, other members of the department began to get control of the flames. Firefighters working near and in the structure commented on the intense heat.

Deputy Chief John Cole was in charge of the firefighters. He said the fire apparently started in the basement, worked up into the ground floor and then up a spiral staircase. Mrs. Kiernan later said she believed the fire started on the first floor.

Neighbors reported smelling smoke in the area the night before. Whether the flames had been slowly eating their way through the house since nighttime, or whether they had only a few hours start, could not be determined.

Tewksbury filled in for the busy local department, reporting to the Ballardvale station. North Andover sent equipment to cover at the Central Fire Station.

PARKING FUNDS CAN'T BE USED

legal to use some of the $25,000 already appropriated by the town to make the area suitable for grading and surfacing. At that same session, held Monday night, he had told the Board of Trade members that some doubt had been raised about leasing the area from its owners because the town meeting article did not specify "leasing" as one of the purposes the money could be spent for.

At the session last Friday, counsel said the state director of accounts had agreed that leasing is out of the question and that brook repairs would not be allowed either.

Thus the Selectmen told the Board of Trade, there seemed to be little hope of using the appropriated funds to accomplish the off-street parking goal, unless the wording could be changed at a special town meeting. There was no extended discussion on that subject.

Members of the Trade Board, expressing disappointment that the town could not enter the picture long enough to fix the brook, mentioned an alternate plan, but did not disclose it.

The area west of Main st., owned by Mrs. David Burns, W.R. Hill and Samuel Glazerman, will be used for parking under the Trade Board's proposal. The owners have agreed to furnish the land for that purpose, without selling it. The Board of Trade had suggested that the town fix the brook, allow private individuals to grade and surface the land, then lease the area. This would enable the town to plow snow there and do slight maintenance work.

Town officials expressed their desire to cooperate, but felt that the latest ruling by town counsel left little opportunity for town participation except by action of town meeting.

No decision has yet been reached on this possibility.

PIKE SCHOOL STARTS NEW YEAR

represented by the boys and girls.

New teachers have been appointed in order to continue the policy of small classes. Douglas Dunbar Sr. has joined the staff as a full time teacher of Latin and Mathematics. He will share the eighth grade home room assignment with Mrs. Hornidge. Mr. Dunbar joins the faculty following his retirement from Phillips Academy. He is familiar with the school where he has been teaching two sections of Latin for the past two years.

Miss Teresa Prior, a British citizen, will serve as the home room teacher of a second section of the sixth grade, which has been divided this year for the first time.

Miss Prior is in this country as an exchange teacher. Her teaching experience during the past 10 years has included posts in Venezuela and at the Overseas School of Rome. She is a graduate of the University of Durham (England).

Miss Betty Jalley joins the staff as a third grade teacher. She is a graduate of Wheelock College with more than 10 years experience which includes posts in the Arlington public schools, in Colombia (S.A.) and at the Overseas

School in Rome.

Mrs. Karl Haartz, a veteran at the school, has been transferred to the fifth grade to fill the post left vacant by Mrs. Gibson's leaving for a European tour.

Others who will join the faculty include Mrs. John Hobbs, as teacher's assistant in the Lower School, and Mrs. Keith Chisholm, who will introduce her native French language to the boys and girls of grades three through five.

Two new sections have been added at the Upper School level to make possible the continuance of the tailoring of the curriculum to the needs of the individual student. Some of the boys and girls continue through their normal 7th and 8th grade study programs. Others undertake a program which includes French, Latin and Algebra at the eighth grade level.

Party Held For 40th Anniversary

Observed 25th Anniversary

Former Andover residents, Dr. and Mrs. William A. Doyle of Post rd. North Hampton, N.H., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Aug. 16 with a family dinner party held at their home.

The Doyles received many cards, gifts and flowers from friends and relatives and were presented with a gift of silver from their daughters and their husbands.

Dr. and Mrs. Doyle, who formerly resided in Shawsheen Village, moved to Hampton in 1950.

They were married in St. Bernard's church, Worcester, Aug. 16, 1933. They have two daughters, Mrs. Timothy J. Herlihy and Mrs. Daniel J. Thomas Jr. and one grandchild, Michael Kevin Herlihy.

Dr. Doyle is a Doctor of Chiropractic and Podiatry in Portsmouth, N.H. He is organizer of the Hampton Lions club and the Elks of which he is a charter member.

CHRISTMAS SEALS HAVE MANY USES

Christmas Seals — ordinarily gracing the rear flap of envelopes during the annual tuberculosis Seal Sale, have other uses, too.

The TOWNSMAN this week received a letter, mailed locally, on which the sender had carefully placed three seals instead of postage. We paid the postage — and assume the Essex County Health Association and Andover Christmas Seal Committee are happy that annual appeal has an ardent supporter throughout the year.

Four Men Fined For Alleged Theft

Fines of $50 each were imposed on four men in District court Friday morning, Aug. 29, following a hearing in connection with the larceny of a lawnmower in Andover, Michael Romano, 36, 185 10th st., Lowell, had previously pleaded guilty to the theft of the lawnmower owned by Charles D.
Thompson, Hidden Field, and George W. Cameron, 29, 160
Myrtle st., Lawrence, had previously pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property. Josef Masonuck, 43, 253 Broadway, Lawrence and John G. Kobrenski, 32, 7 Walnut
st., Lawrence, were both adjudged guilty of larceny of the lawnmower and were each fined $50.

Sergeant Inspector Robert Deyer-
mond of the Andover police testified that he was assigned to investigate the reported theft of the lawnmower and he talked with the defendants Romano, Masonuck

and Kobrenski at the Mayfair Cafe.
He testified that the men told him
they had been drinking at the cafe on August 20, and also from a bottle and they went in Maso-
nuck's car to a garage in Andover at a house under construction and took the lawnmower. The next day they removed the mower to Cameron's house at 160 Myrtle st. and that night Cameron and Romano took it to Lowell where it was sold for $40. The court was informed that the mower had since been returned to the owner.

EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

Simple Rules For Stickers

Primary Day across the state may be chaotic for election officials, but it need not be so.

For there are very simple, easy to follow steps in using a sticker, that would avoid much of the confusion.

It's obvious that the Republican party will have a candidate for governor — and there may be others who will gamble on getting more sticker and write-in votes than the official candidate. All this could create one of the worst foul-ups in modern election history.

And it probably won't be any better here, than elsewhere in the commonwealth.

Town Clerk George Winslow thinks "It'll be a mess".

Actually, it's easy to use a sticker. It should be pasted on the ballot under the section titled "Governor" and a cross placed opposite the name, just as in normal voting procedure. That's all there is to it.

Write-in votes are easy too — write or print, legibly, the name and address of the person and place the cross opposite the name.

The simplicity of this operation should be obvious — but it never is. In any town or city election in which a sticker campaign is run, there's trouble. The stickers are pasted on anywhere, voters forget the cross or they vote for the name printed on the ballot and also paste the sticker on.

For those in Andover who wish to vote by sticker or write-in, this word of advice:

Don't be in a hurry — look at the ballot and be certain you place the sticker under the section devoted to the governor's contest. Put a cross opposite the name on the sticker. Or write in the full name and address and put your cross opposite that name.

If you do this, it will simplify the task of the election officers and your vote will be truly effective. If these directions are not followed, your ballot probably will not be counted in that contest.

Must Take Action

Off-street parking — a necessity in any progressive community — almost became a reality last week, as town counsel ruled that some of the $25,000 off-street parking fund could be used to straighten and cover Rogers Brook on the West side of Main st. to allow use of the area. Merchants had asked the town to do this much, clearing the way for a leveling and hot topping operation they planned to support privately.

But almost as soon as the good word was received, bad news followed. Seems the town can't spend the money for this purpose after all, nor can the town lease the finished lots, under the wording of the particular article appropriating the funds. Thus the town — all its residents, its officials and its merchants — are right back where they started.

There has been a suggestion that the wording of the article in question be changed, by proper steps at the special town meeting.

Any constructive action that can be taken — which would give the private citizens an opportunity to create some off-street parking — should be accomplished swiftly and without objection. If it works out that the town can, by changing a few words in an article, clear the way for a project of such importance, then this should be done. If, in so doing, a small section of Rogers Brook can be repaired, to allow better functioning, then this is of real benefit to the entire community.

It is essential that some steps be taken to provide adequate off-street parking. The merchants and interested private citizens have expressed their willingness to construct the lot, if the brook problem can be solved. This seems a logical step for the town to take.

Keep An Open Mind

A small flurry of excitement was created some days ago when Selectman Sidney P. White suggested hiring women as poll workers. For, unlike many communities, Andover just doesn't — as a matter of fact, never has — hired a woman for this task.

We don't want to create an issue, where none exists. But it is only fair to reiterate what many communities have already discovered — women do as good a job at the polls as do the men.

The advantage to having an open mind on this subject is the probability that there some day will be a shortage of male help on election day. For not every qualified man is able to leave his work when needed.

It might be wise to leave the door open to hiring women as poll workers — we're sure they can do as good a job and sometimes they are available at hours when men are not.

Down the Years with The Townsman

50 Years Ago — September, 1908

There are five candidates announced to succeed John N. Cole in the Legislature. They are Judge George W. Cann, Andrew McTernan, Judge Culver J. Stone, Joseph L. Burns and E. Kendall Jenkins.

The dedication of the new Free Church will be held a week from tomorrow.

All young men of 18 years of age or older are invited to form a Taft-Sherman campaign club. There will be a meeting in Abbot Village Hall Monday evening.

Frank M. Smith, well-known driver of Hose Wagon One, is attending the Firemen's Convention at Nantucket this week. His chores are being handled by his son.

A Haverhill youth, badly wounded a few months ago by Dan Cupid, has finally found happiness. He came to Andover one night to marry a local girl, only to find she had gone out to the movies. A note bared the sad fact that she changed her mind. This time, he chose and won a Haverhill girl.

Arthur Jenkins, James Fairweather and George Saunders Jr. have resumed studies at Cannon's Commercial College in Lawrence.

25 Years Ago — September, 1933

The assessors have announced a $24.20 tax rate — up 20 cents over a year ago. However, the amount is the same as the rate in 1931. The Assessors said valuations remained about the same here, but receipts from the state were much less than a year ago.

The School Committee is considering abandoning its policy of requiring two years experience before a person may teach here. The Committee, at its meeting early this week, heard a motion to the effect that experience would be desirable, but not mandatory. The motion will be considered at the next regular meeting.

Frank McBride, one of Andover's well-known policemen, had a bullet removed from his knee early this week at the Baker Memorial Hospital in Boston. He had been accidentally shot earlier this year and, although he returned to duty, the wound continued to bother him. An attempt to get the bullet out failed at a Lawrence hospital.

Phillips Academy opens its 156th year Sept. 19. This will be the first full year as headmaster for Dr. Claude M. Fuess. He has announced several additional faculty members for the new academic year.

During the month of August, the Memorial Hall Library and Ballardvale branch lent 5,876 books. This brought the total for two-thirds of the year to 53,884 — or, 1,239 more than were lent during the same period of time a year ago.

10 Years Ago — September, 1948

The school bells of Andover will ring out this month and close to 3,400 will respond to their summons. More than 1,500 will attend public schools, while 380 will go to St. Augustine's. Private schools will open their doors later in the month.

Parking meters went officially into business Monday morning. Comment generally has been favorable, with some motorists commenting that they have enjoyed being able to park along Main st.

William F. Tammany has been appointed a regular patrolman on the police force. He was appointed a reserve in December of 1947 and has been doing full duty during the summer vacation period.

Of its total $34 tax rate, the amount of $6.38 is allocated for schools, according to a recent announcement.

Town Treasurer Thaxter Eaton said $32.96 was collected last week from the meters — although they were not officially in use until this week. Some motorists did not take advantage of the week of grace granted by the Selectmen.

Noted Clergyman Coming Here

DR. RAY E. PHILLIPS

Dr. Ray E. Phillips, Congregational Christian social worker in South Africa for the past 40 years and director of the famous Jan H. Hofmeyr School of Social Work, which he founded in 1940 at Johannesburg, will speak at the morning worship service of the Free Christian Church, Sunday, Sept. 28. He will also give an illustrated lecture at a public meeting to be held in the evening of the same day, at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Phillips, a top authority on the inter-racial problems of the country and known throughout South Africa as a staunch friend of its less favored people — Indians, Coloreds (mixed blood) and Africans — is a prolific writer on the country's racial issues. He is the author of three important books on the subject, "The Bantu Are Coming," "The Bantu in the City" and "The Crux of the Race Problem."

He is now working on a fourth book dealing with the increasing complexities of South Africa's racial conflicts.

As a missionary serving under the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, Dr. Phillips has for four decades worked tirelessly and courageously to better the lives of the country's non-Europeans of all ages and conditions. He introduced movies to the trouble-breeding mine compounds combining an educational program with wholesome recreation — to the delight of both the miners and mine owners. Today the movie circuit includes every mine compound in South Africa. He founded the Pathfinder movement and saw it develop into a Boy Scout organization of more than 16,000 youngsters.

He started the Bantu Men's Social Center, an organization similar to the Y.M.C.A. which has served thousands of African youths.

During World War II Dr. Phillips was in charge of Y.M.C.A. work among non-Europeans in 50 military camps. A member of the Y.M.C.A. national council for many years, he was recently presented a gold medal for his work with the association by its honorary president, Dr. E.G. Jansen, the Governor General of the Union of South Africa.

As chairman of the town council of the Moroka Emergency Camp just outside Johannesburg, Dr. Phillips has been in effect the mayor counsellor and advocate of a shanty community of 75,000 non-whites.

Having the respect and confidence of both whites and non-whites since his earliest days in the country, he has served on countless commissions and committees concerned with problems ranging from housing, wages and juvenile delinquency to education, local government and sports.

Born in Hawthorne, Wisconsin, Dr. Phillips was educated at Carleton College and Yale University Divinity School.

Dr. Phillips has recently been honored by election as moderator of the General Council of Congregational Christian churches. His election took place at the national meeting of the denomination held in Boston last June. The position of moderator is the highest elective position in the denomination and Dr. Phillips' election marks the first time a missionary has ever held the important office.

petition of one approved at town meeting last March. An error in wording in the March article prevented its being sent to the attorney general for approval.

Other zoning articles may include shopping center zones, regulations to cover these areas and possibly a general zoning article covering areas that may be used for special purposes — motels, apartments or other uses. A final decision on the zoning articles is expected at the Planning Board meeting next Monday night.

Few money articles are anticipated by town officials, who explain that the Finance Committee must agree that the articles are of an emergency nature before they can be considered. This will eliminate almost all articles calling for an appropriation.

PERMIT GRANTED

J. and Timothy Cronin, proprietors of the J. J. Cronin contracting firm, have been granted a permit to remove gravel from a 15-acre plot of land off River st. in Andover. The board of selectmen granted the permit Friday, Aug. 29, after viewing the location. A hearing was held on the application at the regular meeting of the board last Monday.

A representative of the Cronin firm told the board that it could remove gravel from approximately 15 acres. The area a short distance from the Wilmington line, allows the firm to refrain from using main Andover roads. The gravel would be transported only a short distance in Andover and would not be near any residences.

The area borders on the Shawsheen river.

An adjoining land owner offered some protest to the permit at the hearing, stating that the removal would make a cliff out of other land in the area.

John Cronin stated that it was the intention of the firm to remove the gravel in such a manner as not to disturb any of the surrounding property.

After viewing the area Friday the selectmen granted the permit with restrictions. The firm must post a bond of $2,500, must not go within 25 feet of other property lines and must leave the area on a 45 degree slope and plant trees in the area of removal.

now centers around the efforts to wage a successful sticker cam-

expected character of the campaign will affect the total vote is unknown. But Town Clerk George Winslow agreed this week with other election officials across the state that "it'll be a mess".
He referred to the difficulty encountered by poll workers when they count the ballots.Mr. Winslow emphasized the importance of knowing how to use the sticker, to avoid subsequent confusion.It must be placed on the ballot
in the section headed "Governor", he explained, and a cross must be placed opposite the name, just as in normal voting. A person writing in the name of a candidate must legibly write or print the proper name, street and town address and then put a cross opposite the name.But Mr. Winslow agreed that many persons, without prior experience in using a sticker, probably will run into difficulties.
And this, he explained, will become a problem for the persons counting the votes. How long a delay can be expected, as a result of the anticipated confusion, could not be estimated.Other ContestsThree local men are engaged in two colleagues from Methuen, and Mason Arnold, a newcomer to state politics, are asking nomination for representative.John Adams, a former state senator, is seeking the nomination for that office — from which Senator Marston of Haverhill will retire.Interest has been specially keen in this contest, with Republicans stressing the importance of nominating a candidate in this district who they feel will win in November. Particular emphasis has been placed on the possibility of a redistricting, if both branches of the Legislature and state offices are held by Democrats.Data On CandidatesThe League of Women Voters, in a pre-primary move to obtain information about all the candidates, sent questionnaires to all candidates of both parties. Some of that information, on candidates in local districts, appears here

this week.In the Fifth Essex District, comprising all of Methuen except precinct three, Ward One in Lawrence, Andover and No. Andover,there are five Republican and two Democratic candidates. Voters may choose three in the triple district.The Republican candidates are:Arthur Williams, currently finishing his first term as representative, is a resident of Andover and a lawyer by profession. He took both a Liberal Arts and Law degree from Northeastern University; served as an enlisted man and officer in the Army during World War II; and is a member of many civic and charitable organizations in Greater Lawrence.Frank S. Giles of Methuen, finishing his 12th year as representative, has spent six of those years as Republican Whip and Republican Floor Leader in the House. His background includes service on the Methuen School Committee and 16 years in business management. He is a member of many local organizations.William Longworth of Methuen is completing his 10th year in the House of Representatives. He has six years' experience as an administrative employee in municipal government and has served on many legislative committees and commissions.Mason F. Arnold, an Andover resident, is running in a partisan election for the first time. He is the owner of Arnold Sales Inc., and has spent much of his business career in sales or personnel work. He is a member of the Board of Public Works here and belongs to many local organizations.Philip Sutcliffe of No. Andover is a selectman in that town. He has 11 years' experience in municipal offices.Democratic CandidatesTwo Democrats will receive automatic nomination in the Fifth District. They are Walter J. Sliva of Lawrence, who did not reply to the League's questionnaire and Thomas E. Watman of Methuen, a lawyer, has served for four years as a town meeting member in that community. He has been active in PTA work and belongs to numerous civic and charitable organizations.State SenateFour Republicans and three Democrats want the nomination
for state senator.Republicans include:
John Adams of Andover, former senator and present employee of the state Department of Public Works, did not answer the League's questionnaire.Charles H. Anthony of Haverhill is completing eight years in the Massachusetts House and seeks the senate nomination.A. Edward Talbot of Amesbury is chairman of the selectmen in that town and overseer of public welfare.Daniel M. Thornton of Haverhill is a real estate and insurance broker and a former alderman in the city and former chairman of the industrial commission there.

Democrats seeking the nomination are:

Aldo F. Fassio of Haverhill, a public accountant, is a graduate of Northeastern University and is a former Treasury Department Revenue agent.James P. Rurak of Haverhill and John F. Cahill of No. Andover did not provide data for the League.Watch IndependentsFor the first time in the town's history, as it faces an election year, independents outnumber partisan voters in Andover by a wide margin. This is a sharp change from 1956, when more than half the registered voters here were enrolled in one of the two political parties.In 1958, Town Clerk George Winslow has tabulated these vital statistics — 1,032 Democrats, 3,201 Republicans and 4,519 un-enrolled in either party.Comparisons with 1956 show a drop-off in enrollment in both parties, with a big jump in the number of independent voters.
Some political observers expect many independents to cast a vote next Tuesday. They claim that many voters just haven't had a chance to vote in a partisan election since they registered here.Others see the swing away from party enrollments as indicating a disinterest in partisan politics.Val-E-Roll League

New Provision For Income

Over 5,000,000 World War II and Korean Conflict veterans who hold GI life insurance may now attach a new type of total disability income provision to their policies in return for a small additional premium cost, Veterans Administration announced.

Under a recent new law, VA explained, policyholders who become totally disabled from any cause before age 60 and while the new rider is in effect, will receive an income of $10 per month for each $1,000 face amount of the GI policy. Previous maximum was $5 per month.

Payments under the clause begin after the total disability has existed for six consecutive months, and continue for the duration of the disability, regardless of its length, VA said.

No payment may be made for disabilities incurred after age 60, and no premium charge is made for this benefit after that date.

If the veteran is in good health and under 60, the rider may be added to any National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) policy, except for a limited number sold to service-disabled veterans since April, 1953, VA said.

Of the 5,650,000 holders of eligible NSLI policies, the agency estimated that at least 5,000,000 could qualify for the rider.

There are currently 85,500 veterans who have the old $5 rider attached to their policies. Those who meet the requirements may increase their coverage to the new $10 limit for a very small boost over what they are now paying in added premiums.

Premium cost of the $10 total disability provision varies according to the policyholder's age, type of policy, and its face amount.

A typical example would be that of a 40-year-old veteran with a $10,000 NSLI term policy, who would pay $1.60 per month for the rider. Under its provision, he would receive $100 per month in policy benefits if he became totally disabled.

Payments to the veteran under the rider do not reduce the face amount of the policy.

basic NSLI policy and the income provision, may be waived by VA for any period of total disability longer than six months.

Information about the total disability income provision is available to NSLI policyholders at any VA office.

Drivers Thanked For Cooperation

"As Registrar of Motor Vehicles and Chairman of the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee, I wish to thank the two million Massachusetts drivers for their accident-free driving over the holiday weekend.

"Your reasonable operation made it possible for Massachusetts to compile the best Labor Day record in the history of our State. We had one motor vehicle highway traffic fatality during the 78-hour period from Friday at 6 p.m. through midnight Monday.

"You demonstrated your ability to save lives during this peak movement of highway travel," said the Registrar, "and enforcement officials throughout the Commonwealth appreciate your cooperation." The message is signed by Clement A. Riley, Registrar of Motor Vehicles.

ANDOVER SAVINGS BANK
ANDOVER, MASSACHUSETTS
INVITATION FOR BIDS

The Andover Savings Bank, Andover, Massachusetts, will receive sealed proposals for alterations and additions to their North Andover Office at North Andover, Massachusetts.

Proposals shall be based on the work to be completed in strict accordance with drawings, specifications and other documents prepared by Hutchins & French, Architects, 11 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

The proposals, in duplicate, together with the drawings, specifications and other documents loaned for estimating purposes, shall be delivered to the Treasurer of the Bank at the main office in Andover not later than 3:00 P.M. on Thursday, October 2, 1958, at which time they will be publicly opened and read.

Plans, specifications and other documents may be obtained at the Architects' office, upon due notice of the intent to prepare a proposal, and the deposit of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) in cash, or a certified check in that amount, payable to Hutchins & French, which deposit will be refunded within three days after delivery of the proposal and the return of the documents in satisfactory condition.

Bidders taking the documents and not submitting a proposal will have the deposit refunded less the cost of reproducing the documents. Bidders wishing additional sets may obtain the same at the cost of reproduction and upon agreement to return them to the Architects in good condition before the time set for the receipt of the general contract proposals.

Proposals shall be fully completed upon the forms provided and in accordance with the "Instructions to Bidders". The proposal shall be accompanied by a certified check or bid bond by an approved surety company payable to the Andover Savings Bank in the amount of at least five percent (5%) of the proposal. All such deposits, except those of the three lowest responsible and eligible bidders, will be returned within three days after the time set for the receipt of the proposals. Remaining deposits shall be returned upon the execution and delivery of the contract agreement and bond, or if no award is made, then at the expiration of thirty days after the time set for the receipt of these proposals, unless forfeited by failure to sign the contract as herein provided.

A surety bond, by a company approved by the Bank and in an amount equal to the contract sum, will be required to guarantee the faithful performance of the contract and the payment of all obligations for labor and materials required thereunder. The cost of this bond shall be included in the proposed sum.

The contract shall be signed and the bond furnished within seven days after notification of the award of the contract. In case of failure of the bidder, after such notification, to sign the contract and furnish the bond, the Owner at its option may determine that the bidder has abandoned the contract. Thereupon the proposal and acceptance shall be null and void, and the Owner shall be at liberty to make other contracts with other parties for the work as the Owner sees fit. The deposit accompanying the abandoned proposal shall become the property of the Owner and shall be retained as liquidated damages and full compensation for all loss, damage and delay caused the Owner by the failure of the bidder to sign the contract and execute the bond within the time aforesaid.

All principal and such minor sub-contractors as listed in the Contractor's proposal form shall deliver, to the Architects, copies of all bids sent to the General Contractors. The bids shall be in sealed opaque envelopes plainly marked on the outside with the name of the project and the bidder as well as the names of those General Contractors to whom the bid is delivered.

All such bids shall be in the possession of the Architects and delivered or mailed to the General Contractors by 2:00 P.M. on Friday, September 26, 1958.

The names of these sub-bidders who have filed their bids will be sent to the General Contractors bidding on the project. No bids of sub-contractors other than those included in the Architects' list shall be used by the General Contractor in his proposal.

It is the intention of the Owner to award the contract to the lowest qualified and responsible bidder, but the Bank reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to award the contract to the bidder deemed best for the interest of the Bank. No bids shall be withdrawn for a period of thirty days subsequent to the time set for their receipt without the consent of the Bank.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the Architects' office, the Bank, Dodge Reports and Gainey's Construction Newsletter.

"The members of the Massachusetts Highway Safety Committee express sincere appreciation to you and your staff for the excellent coverage given the state-wide highway accident prevention campaign conducted over the Labor Day holiday weekend."

"There was one highway traffic death reported. This was the best Labor Day weekend safety record ever compiled in this Commonwealth."

"You made a major contribution to this great life-saving campaign and the splendid record achieved by keeping the motoring public informed of our immediate problem and the intelligent way to reduce highway accidents."

"The safety slogan, 'Drive Sanely' was reflected in the minimum number of highway traffic accidents reported throughout the 78-hour period from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Labor Day."

"For your public service, we are deeply grateful."
